Recommended Minimum Requirements for Core Training Posts in Neurology (RACP)

- Exposure to and supervision by at least the equivalent of two full-time neurologists.

- Five to ten inpatient beds or equivalent.

- Good neuroradiology facilities and access to MRI with at least one review session per week.

- Access to neurosurgery service.

- Neurophysiology services providing EEG, EMG and evoked potentials.

- One session of ambulatory care per week with direct responsibility for patient care.

- Access to intensive care unit facilities.

- Access to neuropathology services with at least one review session per month.

- Access to neurorehabilitation.

- Access to appropriate library and education facilities.

- Access to the relevant State Training Scheme

- Computer facilities to access Brain School (Brain School must be protected time)

- Access to dedicated desk and computer setting within the department including ability to read and report EEGs

Nicholas Child
ANZAN Honorary Secretary
23 May 2024